Adjunct Instructor, Literature of Comics

The Columbus College of Art & Design (CCAD) is seeking a Part-Time Adjunct Instructor for our Writing, Literature and Philosophy Department to teach The Literature of Comics. This position is for the Fall 2022 semester. The Literature of Comics is a 3000-level seminar course that immerses students in the critical reading of primarily long-form or book-length comics, though short-form, single-issue, and/or webcomics may be used to supplement the main readings. Students analyze diverse comics texts in conversation and in writing, articulating and applying literary critical frameworks with special attention paid to the formal properties and interpretative strategies that are unique to comics. Students also identify relevant topics and themes in the field of comics, developing their cultural literacy in respect to diversity, equity, and inclusion at the intersections of race, ethnicity, gender, sexuality, class, disability, and other important contemporary subjects. Students typically write at least one major analytical research essay during the class.

Position: Adjunct Instructor, part-time

Qualifications: A Masters degree in English is required and previous teaching experience preferred.

Application Deadline: Priority given to candidates who apply by July 1, 2022.

Date of Hire: Fall 2022

Please apply by visiting ApplicantPro.com and searching for Literature of Comics. The application should include a letter of interest and resume or vita.

CCAD Vaccination & Booster Requirement Notice

Columbus College of Art & Design (CCAD) is committed to protecting our students, employees, and our communities from COVID-19. Toward that goal, and in consideration of guidance released by the state of Ohio, the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), and a variety of public health authorities and professional organizations, CCAD is implementing a vaccination & booster requirement policy for its students and employees.

All employees, including on-campus, hybrid, or fully remote status, are required to receive the Covid-19 vaccination and booster shot (if eligible) as determined by CCAD and provide proof of their fully vaccinated/up to date status upon hire.

Reasonable Accommodation: Employees in need of an exemption from this policy requirement due to a medical reason, or because of a sincerely held religious belief, must request a Request for Accommodation form from Human Resources to begin the interactive accommodation process. Accommodation requests will be considered on a case-by-case basis and/or granted where they do not cause CCAD undue hardship or pose a direct threat to the health and safety of others.

Please direct any questions regarding this notice to Human Resources at humanresources@ccad.edu.

CCAD reserves the right to modify, supplement, revise, or rescind any part of this notice as it deems necessary or appropriate with notification..

About Columbus:

As the 14th largest city in the country and the largest and fastest-growing city in Ohio, Columbus is collaborative, open, and dynamic. Between incredible arts and entertainment, exciting collegiate and professional sports, and a spectacular downtown riverfront of sprawling greenspace, Columbus has something for everyone. Here, you'll find all the culture and amenities you'd expect in a major city, with the friendly and approachable attitude of the Midwest. Franklin County, where Columbus is located, is the epicenter of the state's political, economic, and social presence and is home to 1.3 million residents with a median age of 34. Columbus is a top city for equality and was the recipient of a perfect score from the Human Rights Campaign in 2020. And central Ohio is serious about higher education: the Columbus region is home to 52 college and university campuses, with 22,000 annual college graduates. Because CCAD is closely tied to the city's numerous art and design spaces and ever-expanding districts, you'll have plenty of places to experience creativity and showcase your own.

EEO Statement:

As an educational and cultural institution, a culture of equity and inclusion is not an add-on at CCAD, rather it is central to how we define creative excellence and the health of our institution. CCAD believes that a culturally diverse campus is integral to academic excellence, and our student, faculty, staff, and trustee bodies should reflect the diverse world in which we live, with attention to race, ethnicity, religious creed, national origin, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, and ability. At CCAD, we are determined to foster an environment of inclusion and equity. CCAD is an equal opportunity employer and encourages applications from individuals who will contribute to its diversity.
